The car is a 1989 Vw Golf 1.8 G60 Rallye in dark grey which was imported from Germany to the UK in 1998 and then to Ireland in 2005 when i bought the car which was in great condition at that time.Unfortunately i have left the car outside for a lot of the time since then and now it needs a full restoration of the body and some mechanical attention but it does start and drive but it will not be driving home as it has developed a brake fluid leak today most likely a brake hose.
