Amazing Grace. Our parents and catechists taught us as small children that God created us to know, love, and serve Him with the end goal of being with him in Heaven for all eternity. Our human mind, especially as children, cannot conceive of the reality of Heaven or what eternal life will be like once we get there.

"Amazing Grace" is a Christian hymn published in 1779, with words written in 1772 by the English poet and Anglican clergyman John Newton. Newton wrote the words from personal experience. He grew up without any particular religious conviction, but his life's path was formed by a variety of twists and coincidences that were often put into motion by others' reactions to what they took as his recalcitrant insubordination. He was pressed into service in the Royal Navy. After leaving the service, he b

"Amazing Grace" by Gerard Chiusano This version of "Amazing Grace" is a concertato arrangement for SATB choirs with descant. Probably the most traditional-sounding arrangement that OCP offers, Gerard's setting has soprano and alto voices singing the first verse, with the men joining in for the subsequent verses.

We Catholics certainly believe we are all sinners saved by amazing grace, too (and by grace alone). The "wretch" who is saved in the hymn is John Newton, a former slave ship captain, overwhelmed by the grace of God in his life. So what is the big deal? What do Catholics believe about the sinful nature of man?

If sanctifying grace dwells in your soul when you die, then you can live in heaven (though you may need to be purified first in purgatory; cf. 1 Cor. 3:12:16). If it doesn't dwell in your soul when you die(in other words, if your soul is spiritually dead by being in the state of mortal sin (Gal. 5:19-21)) you cannot live in heaven.
