Some baby showers do away with disposable greeting cards and request guests to instead write their baby shower wishes inside the cover of a beloved children's book. That can be a lot of pressure given your baby book messages may live on that child's bookshelf for years to come, whereas a card can just end up in the trash.

Baby Shower Wishes: What to Write in a Baby Shower Card

In addition to baby's name, a post-arrival shower means you'll also know the birth date, length, weight, and maybe even who baby looks most like. You might choose to incorporate any of these in your card's message (and/or on a monogrammed gift). New parents will also appreciate some extra help once the baby has arrived.

With a baby shower gift message, it's not just what you say but how you incorporate it as part of the book that can make it truly memorable. Inscriptions are frequently written inside the cover of a book. Most picture books offer ample room on the back side of a hard-cover book cover, along with a first page that is generally blank.
