Batman R.I.P. – 10 Easter Eggs You Missed In Grant Morrison's Run. Morrison's seven-year Bat-opus was the writer's definitive statement on the character, exploring Batman's long history through a refreshing lens. By Tomas Balino Nov 01, 2020. Share Share Tweet Email. 0. Comment. To call Grant Morrison's run on Batman ambitious is an understatement. Morrison's seven-year Bat-opus ...

And while Batman R.I.P. is tightly plotted, well-crafted and deeply complex, it just doesn't hit the sweet-spot of what, in my personal opinion at least, makes a cracking Batman graphic novel. There's little wrong with the artwork, which is solid and, while probably not the best Batman art you'll ever see, doesn't do a bad job of creating the right mood. And the plot is about as ...

Grant Morrison's Batman arcs all come to a brilliant, intense finale in the Batman R.I.P. comic book! The violence, insanity, and preparation of Batman and Son, The Black Glove, & Batman: The Resurrection of Ra's Al Ghul all come together in Batman's most harrowing tale to conquer his fears and mind and take out The Black Glove. It's all so well written and drawn, it's mind blowing. The number ...
