I enjoy playing the game but yet, I know it is grossly inferior to Borderlands and Borderlands 2. The guide book compared to the guide books of the first two games, is grossly inferior. But overall, the Pre-Sequel game is relatively straight forward to play and you really don't need that detail of the guide book to finished the game. Really.

Borderlands The Pre Sequel Signature Series Strategy Guide

Gearbox and 2K's Borderlands: The Pre-Sequel is a decent game and a fine entry in the series, with plenty of guns and fun characters. However, the story is totally unnecessary to the franchise overall. Borderlands: The Pre-Sequel is set between the first and second game, and it attempts to detail how beloved villain Handsome Jack from Borderlands 2 became the power mad, evil Hyperion leader.
