Press About fogchart.com - Fog Charts

A fog chart is used and alot of times made by crews to navigate the tracks they run on in the fog and bad weather, using distinctive objects clearly identifiable and near the tracks, to keep track of where they are on the territory. It is very good for knowing where your signals are, and not blowing through a red signal.

In Bleak House, fog symbolizes confusion and illusion—in other words, the inability to see clearly. In the opening of the novel, London is wrapped in fog so thick that it enters people's houses and even surrounds the court, the lawyers, and the Judge who sit inside the court of Chancery; which specializes in cases based on property and inheritance and around which much of the novel revolves.
