Chapter 10 ‘ Making welfare work ’ contains a full exploration of welfare policies impacting homelessness.
But figure 2.6 demonstrates clearly the current gap between private rental prices and the Local Housing Allowance rates available in those areas. As with the lack of affordable housing supply, this is a policy choice made by successive governments that both causes homelessness and ...

Chapter 2: Public policy and homelessness | The Plan To ...
Chapter 4 ‘ Public attitudes and homelessness ’ is dedicated to the issue of public understanding and responses to the issue of homelessness. It has been informed by a ground-breaking study from the FrameWorks Institute. The study looks at how the general public understands and responds to the way homelessness is framed by advocates such as ourselves and by wider media coverage.

Full-scale reform of the legal aid system is outside the scope of this report, but below are the key issues that do require attention. The Ministry of Justice should consider reforms to ensure that legal aid is available for the areas of law that will help to prevent or relieve homelessness for migrants. This includes immigration cases and early legal help for welfare benefits, debt ...
