2. Reflection on why I Chose The Great Gatsby I chose this novel after reading great reviews on this book. After reading this book, a reader can learn so much from it and apply the lessons they have learned in real life. Unlike the other novels, this novel explored universal themes- human follies, hopelessness of societal constructs and a man's struggle with time and fate.

PRE-READING FOR THE GREAT GATSBY. As much as I love Gatsby, I'll be the first to admit that this novel is challenging for my students!That's why it's incredibly important to scaffold during the pre-reading phase. Time invested during pre-reading will pay off when you ask students to critically think later on in the text.
