Hannah Green And Her
Unfeasibly

The titular Hannah
Green is a young girl
dealing with the break
up of her parents'
marriage. Her mother has left her father for a work colleague, and has moved from the West unfeasibly mundane existence is the kind of book that feels like it is revealing some of the secrets of the universe.

For example, I now know why some people seem to be travelling under their own personalised dark cloud (Vaneclaw) and where my mother got her recipe for ratatouille (Frankie's).
