Read the passage at normal speed from the beginning. Look out for the keywords from the question, or any words which have a similar meaning (look for synonyms and paraphrasing). Underline the keywords that you find in the passage. Read the sentences around those keywords carefully. You may need to read them several times. Check back to the question, and compare it with the relevant part of the passage.

I often teach the "keyword technique" as the best strategy for IELTS reading (IELTS Simon also uses this). To do this, first find the keywords in the questions and then either find their match or opposite in the reading passage. For example, I've highlighted the keywords in this question…. " Tourism has a social impact because it promotes recreation ." (Cambridge IELTS book 10, page 67)
