IF I should die, think only this of me:
That there's some corner of a foreign field That is forever England. There shaped, made aware, Gave, once, her flowers to love, her ways to roam, A body of England's, breathing English air, Washed by the rivers, blest by the suns of home. And think, this heart, all

If I should die and leave you Be not like the others, quick undone Who keep long vigils by the silent dust and weep. For my sake turn to life and smile Nerving thy heart and trembling thee. Complete these unfinished tasks of mine And I perchance may therein comfort thee. Topic(s) of this poem:
