An Introduction to Cyril of Alexandria. Cyril of Alexandria (c.376 – 444AD) is something of a Marmite figure in Church history. There aren ' t many people who have managed to collect so many fiercely loyal friends alongside so many equally fiercely raging enemies. In the seventh century, one scholar called him ' the seal of the fathers ' , believing his theological influence to be so weighty and important as to affirm and encapsulate all that had gone before.
