Literature-based instruction is the type of instruction in which authors' original narrative and expository works are used as the core for experiences to support children in developing literacy. The types of activities done with the literature are the natural types of things children and adults would do when reading and responding to any good book.

The step by step procedure to writer's workshop mini lessons helps the educator take the small steps necessary to teach young writers. I found the children's literature book lists (from which the author takes most of her lessons) exceptionally helpful. Overall, this book is easy to use and even easier to follow the suggested program.
