Lucian Freud – Exhibition at Tate Britain | Tate
Recognised as one of the leading 20th-century portraitists, Lucian Freud (1922 –2011) was a British painter celebrated for his figurative paintings. His early career as a painter was influenced by surrealism, but by the early 1950s his often stark paintings tended towards realism. Freud was an intensely private man and the subjects in paintings are often the closest people in his life including his friends, family, fellow painters, lovers and children.

One of the most celebrated portraitists of our time, Lucian Freud is also one of very few 20th century artists who portrayed themselves with such consistency. Spanning nearly seven decades, his self-portraits give a fascinating insight into both his psyche and his development as a painter – from his earliest portrait, painted in 1939, to his final one executed 64 years later.
