Midnight Awakening (Midnight Breed, #3) by Lara Adrian

Midnight Awakening, the third book in Lara Adrian's Midnight Breed series and I think that the series has now hit its stride. The story itself picks up a few months after the events in the preceding Kiss of Crimson (Midnight Breed). As such it also concerns characters that have already been introduced to us previously: Elise Chase the sister-in-law of Sterling Chase and Tegan, one of the more extreme Breed warriors.

"Midnight Awakening" is the third in Lara Adrian's Vampire Breed series and it's another great read. Comparisons with J R Ward's Black Dagger Brotherhood books continue, especially as this third book is about the emotionally damaged and loner vampire who finds his match in a damaged woman who no longer feels her place is in the society of her peers (rather like Z and Bella in Lover Awakened).
