In the United States of America, state library agencies established in each state have long been a catalyst for a great deal of the motivation for public library cooperation. This has been since the founding of the movement, starting in 1890 when Massachusetts created a state Board of Library Commissioners charged to help communities establish and improve public libraries.

MIAMI COUNTY — Libraries throughout the county have received COVID-19 safety funding to protect staff and patrons as libraries begin to again serve their communities. The Office of Budget and Management distributed $25,000 to each of the county's libraries in July as part of COVID safety funding to Ohio Public Libraries.
