Anton Myrer's "Once An Eagle" is a magnificantly written novel, on an epic scale, of life in the United States Army from World War I to Vietnam. In it, Myrer, a World War II Marine Corps veteran, describes the highs and lows of the life of a soldier, from the adrenaline rush and awful fear of close combat to the dreary routine of dilapidated peacetime army posts between the World Wars. Myrer ...

Once An Eagle In 1968, Anton Myrer, a Marine Corps veteran of WWII in the Pacific, wrote an epic war novel, "Once an Eagle," which became an instant best seller in the military. The two main characters represent two extremes of the types of people you meet in the military, with most of us somewhere in-between. The hero, Sam Damon, is always being told to swallow his ethical code for the good ...
