Introduction to Open Secrets: A Poor
Person's Journey from Poverty to the PhD

I am an angry Black woman. This is a secret and has been so most of my life. I am angry because the social justice – righting of historic and contemporary racist and sexist wrongs -- that I expected for myself and my people has eluded America for the sixty plus years

AN OPEN SECRET looks at the lives of children betrayed and abandoned by a system that essentially funnels them towards sexual predators without any oversight or regard for their safety. It documents not only these young peoples' experiences, but also how some have emerged stronger for their speaking out. It beg the questions of why children working in entertainment aren't afforded the same protections they are afforded at school, and argues for more effective treatment and stronger penalties ...
