Sentence diagramming shows the logical relation of grammatical terms to each other so that an author or speaker can check that he logically conveys his message to his reader or listener. The nature of speech is to communicate truth. If the listener does not understand what the speaker says, there is not a complete communication between them.

7 Diagramming Sentences I. In the late nineteenth century, Alonzo Reed and Brainerd Kellogg developed a method for diagramming sentences in the belief that students would understand sentence structure better if they could picture it. Many students do indeed find the diagrams helpful in seeing the relationships among sentence elements.
