Leif Enger, the author of Peace Like a River, is a word master like his character Swede, a quite imaginative young girl short on humility. I cannot say enough good things about this book, now the favorite at the top of my list. This story of the Land family is wrapped in belief and faith, as well as a bit of skepticism.

The story of a father raising his three children in 1960s Minnesota, Peace Like a River is at once a heroic quest, a tragedy, a love story, and a haunting meditation on the possibility of magic in the everyday world. Raised on tales of cowboys and pirates, eleven-year-old Reuben Land has little doubt that miracles happen all around us, and that it's up to us to "make of it what we will."

Leif Enger's debut, Peace Like a River, is one such work. His richly evocative novel, narrated by an asthmatic 11-year-old named Reuben Land, is the story of Reuben's unusual family and their journey across the frozen Badlands of the Dakotas in search of his fugitive older. Once in a great while, we encounter a novel in our voluminous reading that begs to be read aloud.

Peace Like a River reminds a reader of Kent Haruf's Plainsong or even Norman MacLean's A River Runs Through It.
