1974 song by the Average White Band from their second album, AWB. On the single, songwriting credit was given to founding member and saxophonist Roger Ball and guitarist Hamish Stuart individually and the entire band collectively. It is essentially an instrumental, apart from the song's title being shouted at several points in the song.

FORT SHAW- One man is left picking up the pieces after a barn fire quickly turned into a wildlands fire Thursday afternoon near Highway 200 in Fort Shaw. The land owner says he was simply working on an old car, one of several dozen on his property, when something sparked. The small fire quickly spread due to strong winds in the area and turned his entire lot into an inferno.
