PROM DATES FROM HELL by Rosemary Clement-Moore
Maggie's grandmother is also a very cool character, and she's a big help with the investigation. The plot and the heroine are definitely reminiscent of Buffy the Vampire Slayer, but I can't fault anyone for wanting to pay homage to Joss Whedon. And even with these similarities, Prom Dates from Hell is a fast, funny, and extremely enjoyable read.

PROM DATES FROM HELL is definitely different, but in a very good way. Rosemary Clement-Moore takes on the Prom like never before. Even though everything may seem weird throughout the story, the ending actually makes it all seem so ordinary. And the relationship that blossoms between Maggie and a certain someone gives the book a little something extra.
