Punch and Judy Scripts. Punch and Judy scripts can be tailored to be more 'suitable' for very young children if preferred. This is a personal decision but I would like to reassure any worriers out there that most children have already seen worse violence on television and from my own experience performing Punch and Judy to a wide variety of ages, very rarely does a child react badly to any Punch and Judy performance.

~~A History Of Punch & Judy~~

In 1828, the critic John Payne Collier published a Punch and Judy script under the title The Tragical Comedy or Comical Tragedy of Punch and Judy. The script was illustrated by the well-known caricaturist George Cruikshank. Collier said his script was based on the version performed by the "professor" Giovanni Piccini in the early 19th century, and Piccini himself had begun performing in the streets of London in the late 18th century.
