The problem some Quicken users run into is that Quicken appears to be running slowly at times, and it turns out to be because of open windows hiding behind the main window. If there are reports open which need to recalculate after every transaction edit or entry is saved, it can make Quicken run slowly -- and there's no visual indication to users.

Derek August 22, 2016 at 08:20:33. It could be that Quicken 2000 is just too old for Win 10. However you could right click the shortcut, select Properties then Compatibility View (for Win 7). It might help. Otherwise if you have the download or CD then maybe a re-install will fix it. There could be a risk though so see the discussion here first:
