Amazon.com. This latest release in Chandos's popular Opera in English series is also, intelligently, a record of the later incarnation of Jonathan Miller's successful adaptation of Rigoletto, which shifts its location from mediaeval Mantua to the dives of New York's gangsters in the early '50s. In practice, this means very minor adjustments to the text; this is a fluent translation the effect ...

I am fond of the Chandos opera in english series; even though my Italian is fluent and my French passable, hearing old favorites in english is often fun--providing a startling immediacy to the drama. But this one really disappointed me with the oddly colorless singing and general coolness of the Rigoletto.
