Sins of the 7th Sister is billed as the true story of Huston Curtiss' life growing up in Elkins, West Virginia while at the same time being labeled a novel. I have to believe it is more novel because it asks me to believe a little bit too much for it to be a memoir.

The Seventh Sister brought Ezra to the medical station's command center to slowly break him by using psychological tactics, a combination of threats, taunts and Force powers, including an attempted mind probe. Ezra refused to break and fired back with a few taunts of his own, vaguely impressing her but also causing her to lose patience as he continued to resist.
