Supervision: A Redefinition

Supervisors daily face the dilemma of authority. As middle-management personnel, they have two commitments: (a) to the achievement and survival concerns of educational organizations, and (b) to human concerns that revolve around the feelings, worth, and independence of human beings. ERGIOVANNI and Starratt pose a fundamental question that is basic to the ends, means, and outcomes of education: Should schools use people to accomplish organizational ends or should people ...

The Dilemma of Authority in Supervisory Behavior

Sergioivanni, Thomas T. — Educational Evaluation and Policy Analysis, 1984 Theoretical and practical perspectives, absolute and bounded rationality, the nature of reality, and the subject-object problem are discussed to point out the blind spots in the scientific-technical view of teacher supervision and evaluation.

The Principalship: A Reflective Practice Perspective ...

Sergioivanni, Thomas J. The reflective practice of principalsip differs from other ways of practicing principalsip by viewing the principal's problems as unique rather than as standard problems susceptible to standardized solutions. This book provides information, raises questions, and considers the complexities of school problems, all as raw material for the reflective principal to use when developing the informed intuition required for successful educational leadership.
