It starts with a kitten which looks a bit like your kitten, but it's not. It's tongue is too fuzzy. You can actually touch the tongue and check for yourself. Same thing on the next page - a similar cat, but when you look closer one thing's wrong and it's not until the very last page that you find your kitten, the one with a fluffy tummy.

That's Not My Kitten... by Fiona Watt - Goodreads

Although my son is only 10 weeks old he seems to enjoy the books, paying attention to the colourful pages and touching the pages (he's only recently discovered he can grab things). I'm sure we've got plenty more enjoyment with these books as my son realises the different textures on each page and plays 'find the white mouse' as he grows older.
