There is plenty of history along the way from all eras of human development - this is not a deep history book, but it shares plenty of information about how the Alps shaped the development of Europe, humanity and culture. Perhaps the only critique I can make is that the Renault Megane, even the RS, is a hot-hatch, not a muscle car.

Because of their central location in Europe, the Alps are affected by four main climatic influences: from the west flows the relatively mild, moist air of the Atlantic; cool or cold polar air descends from northern Europe; continental air masses, cold and dry in winter and hot in summer, dominate in the east; and, to the south, warm Mediterranean air flows northward. Daily weather is influenced by the location and passage of cyclonic
