I first read The Big Green Book when I was five years old, a gift from my grandmother back in 1962. I reread the book many times over the years until I gave it to my grand niece. So I bought a new copy for myself again. It was great to imagine what magic might do. But in the end the family came back together, a happy ending.

The Big Green Book of Beginner Books by Dr. Seuss

A little boy named Jack discovers a big green book of magic in the attic and learns all sorts of spells—spells to change the look of things, spells to make him old and gray or disappear entirely! Jack makes the most of his new magic powers, and his poor old aunt and uncle are quite bewildered. This enchanting tale by noted British author Robert Graves is masterfully illustrated by Maurice Sendak, seven-time Caldecott Honor recipient, National Book Award
