outback, on the dazzling saltpan of Lake Eyre, Donald Campbell set out to drive his Bluebird car at over 400 miles an hour—faster than any man in history. Things went wrong from the start: unseasonable rains, a sodden lake bed in which every high-speed run slewed dangerously, money running short—even an Aboriginal curse.

Bluebird and the Dead Lake is a true report of the events, which read like a thrilling adventure story. This is a vibrant portrait of one of the world's most hostile and mesmerising landscapes. It is also a compelling psychological drama driven by ambition, bitter rivalry, tenacity and, above all, death-defying courage.
