The Forme Of Cury La

The Forme of Cury is an extensive collection of medieval English recipes from the 14th century.

Although the original source manuscript is lost, the text exists in nine manuscripts, the most famous of which is in the form of a scroll with a headnote citing it as the work of "the chief Master Cooks of King Richard II". The name Forme of Cury is generally used to refer to the family of recipes rather than the text of any single manuscript. It is among the oldest extant English cookery
