The bell chimed and the doors slid aside revealing a large open room with windows on all four sides. From here she could see the entire city sprawling in every direction. Her lip quirked as she imagined the forty Blessed Army soldiers she'd already delivered making their way through the slums, meeting up with their anarchist allies, and distributing the weapons they'd brought with them.

"You know tryouts for the Four Nations Tournament team are coming up, right?" Conryu didn't like where this was going. "Yeah." "The Department would like you to try out. You're eligible this year, though a sophomore hasn't made the team in a long time." For a moment Conryu wished his hair was longer so he could pull it out.
