The modern geocentric theory movement appears to have begun with Walter van der Kamp (1913–1998). It's not clear when van der Kamp became convinced of geocentrism, but in 1967 he circulated a paper on the subject among a few Christians. In it, he argued that Galileo had not actually disproved geocentrism and that no subsequent science had ...

Modernization theory is used to explain the process of modernization within societies. Modernization refers to a model of a progressive transition from a 'pre-modern' or 'traditional' to a 'modern' society. Modernization theory originated from the ideas of German sociologist Max Weber (1864–1920), which provided the basis for the modernization paradigm developed by Harvard sociologist Talcott Parsons (1902–1979).
