The ship Star Cross returns to earth after a severely damaged war ship shows up at Earth's only colony world. What they find is a group of ships in orbit and signs that Earth has sustained a nuclear bombardment. In response Admiral Vickers takes the Star Cross and his small fleet of ships in to a surprise attack.

"Star-crossed" or "star-crossed lovers" is a phrase describing a pair of lovers whose relationship is often thwarted by outside forces. The term encompasses other meanings, but originally means the pairing is being "thwarted by a malign star" or that the stars are working against the relationship. Astrological in origin, the phrase stems from the belief that the positions of the stars ruled over people's fates, and is best known from the play Romeo and Juliet by the
