The Violet and the Tom. Prelude: My first taste of what it meant to be the slave of royalty came at his feet. The smooth pungency of a well-aged cheese placed carelessly between my lips, the fragrant sugar of a ripe summer peach, with the salt from the cheese—or was that simply his skin?—still lingering on his fingertips.

Tom spies on the seduction when it takes place, and is surprised to hear Melissa's dissatisfaction with him isn't as divorce-bound as it had seemed. I'm not really clear why Melissa's position softens, or why the couple so readily improve towards each other once Tom admits really wanting to watch her.
