Total depravity is a Christian theological doctrine derived from the concept of original sin. It teaches that, as a consequence of man's fall, every person born into the world is enslaved to the service of sin as a result of their fallen nature and, apart from the efficacious or prevenient grace of God, is completely unable to choose by themselves to follow God, refrain from evil, or accept the gift of salvation as it is offered. The doctrine is advocated to various degrees by many Protestant de

Total depravity - Wikipedia

Answer: Total depravity is a phrase or name that is used to summarize what the Bible teaches about the spiritual condition of fallen man. It is the "T" in the acronym TULIP, which is commonly used to enumerate what are known as the five points of Calvinism or the doctrines of grace.

Total depravity - is it biblical? | GotQuestions.org

Total Depravity: Although fallen persons are capable of externally good acts (acts that are good for society), they cannot do anything really good, i.e., pleasing to God (Rom. 8:8). God, however, looks on the heart. And from his ultimate standpoint, fallen man has no goodness, in thought, word, or deed. He is therefore incapable of contributing anything to his salvation.

Total Depravity of Man | Monergism

Total Depravity is the doctrine that fallen man is completely touched by sin and that he is completely a sinner. He is not as bad as he could be, but in all areas of his being, body, soul, spirit, mind, emotions, etc., he is touched by sin. In that sense, he is totally depraved.

Total Depravity | CARM.org

The doctrine of total depravity is a very humbling one. It is not that man leans to one side and needs propping up, nor that he is merely ignorant and requires instructing, nor that he is run down and calls for a tonic; but rather that he is undone, lost, spiritually dead.

The Total Depravity of Man by A. W. Pink - Monergism

Man's depravity is total in at least four senses. (1) Our rebellion against God is total. Apart from the grace of God there is no delight in the holiness of God, and there is no glad submission to the sovereign authority of God. Of course totally depraved men can be very religious and very philanthropic.

Total Depravity by John Piper - Monergism

□Total Depravity is probably the most misunderstood tenet of Calvinism. When Calvinists speak of humans as □totally depraved,□ they are making an extensive, rather than an intensive statement. The effect of the fall upon man is that sin has extended to every part of his personality □ his thinking, his emotions, and his will.

Puritan quotes and sayings on Total Depravity: "Because of the original corruption, the will of man in the state of sin (though free in the actions it performs) is captive and servile in its way of performing them.

Total Depravity - compiled by Dr. C. Matthew McMahon ...

The doctrine of total depravity (or total inability) says that all men, as a consequence of the Fall, are born morally corrupt, enslaved to sin, at enmity with God, and unable to please Him or even of themselves to turn to Christ for salvation. (Thus the necessity of a gracious, unconditional election.)

Total Depravity Verse List | Travis Carden

Total depravity (also called total inability or total corruption) is a biblical doctrine closely linked with the doctrine of original sin as formalized by Augustine and advocated in many Protestant confessions of faith and catechisms, especially in Calvinism. The doctrine understands the Bible to teach that, as a consequence of the the Fall of man, every person born into the world is morally corrupt, enslaved to sin and is, apart from the grace of God, utterly unable to choose to follow God ...

Total depravity - Theopedia.com

The saving message of grace starts with total depravity. Man is entirely corrupted by sin. He is spiritually dead and unable to save himself. He could not be more hopeless and helpless.

Charles Spurgeon on Calvinism ¶ Total Depravity

In the Reformed tradition, total depravity does not mean utter depravity. We often use the term total as a synonym for utter or for completely, so the notion of total depravity conjures up the idea that every human being is as bad as that person could possibly be. You might think of an archfiend of history such as Adolf Hitler and say there was absolutely no redeeming virtue in the man, but I suspect that he had some affection for his mother.

TULIP and Reformed Theology: Total Depravity

Total Depravity (also known as Total Inability) - Man is completely touched/affected by sin in all that he is (in nature he is completely fallen), but is not as bad as he could be (in action, i.e., not all murder, etc.).

Total Depravity | CARM.org

Total Depravity, sometimes called "total inability," is one of the five points of Calvinism, and is the "T" in the acronym TULIP 1. Total Depravity states that each and every person (except Jesus, 1 Peter 2:22) is completely touched by sin in all that he is and does whether it's heart, soul, mind, body, thought, or deed.

What is total depravity and is it biblical? | CARM.org

A explanation of the Calvinistic understanding of man's fallen nature. It is a fairly grim read, but the title is "The Total Depravity of Man", and the content is true to the title. The book could probably have been a third of its length without the loss of too much substance, but there is value in belabouring the points being made.
