The most explorative instrumental passages occur on Spiegelsaal (Hall Of Mirrors) whilst Metall Auf Metall and Abzug are both reprises of Trans Europa Express with industrial and dub undertones. Franz Schubert is a beautiful melodious instrumental which recalls the atmospheric work of Peter Baumann and this magnificent album concludes with Endlos Endlos, a brief reprise of Europa Endlos.

Although Autobahn was a left-field masterpiece, Trans-Europe Express is often cited as perhaps the archetypal (and most accessible) Kraftwerk album. Melodic themes are repeated often and occasionally interwoven over deliberate, chugging beats, sometimes with manipulated vocals; the effect is mechanical yet hypnotic. Thematically, the record feels like parts of two different concept albums: one ...
