We can only know for sure what God is like if He reveals Himself to us. Otherwise we're left to guess about God--and our guesses can lead us down all kinds of false paths. The Bible speaks of those whose "thinking became futile. ... and exchanged the glory of the immortal God for images made to look like a mortal human being and birds and animals and reptiles" (Romans 1:21, 23).

Answer: Every culture in the history of the world has had some concept of what God is like. Some have assumed that God is in control of the weather and have made images of a storm god throwing lightning bolts around (Baal worship in Canaan). Some have assumed that God is very powerful, and so they worshiped the most powerful thing they could see, the sun (Ra worship in Egypt).

What Is God Really Like? Like the father in the parable of the Prodigal Son, God regrets your rebellion but loves you so much he will let you walk out of fellowship with him. But He is also a God who runs to you when you return and restores you when you repent.

What Is God Really Like? Sermon by David Dykes, Luke 15:11 ...

The God of the Bible declares that He's the creator, He's the all-knowing one, and He's all-powerful. God isn't what we want Him to be and He isn't just a power that lives inside of everyone. If we really want to know the character of God, we need to look at who is Jesus. He told the disciples, "I am the way and the truth and the life.

Nature shows us indeed that there is a God, a creative, beautiful, intelligent God. And we can see evidence, like perfect fingerprints, of God all around us. For instance, not long ago, scientists used the Hubble Space Telescope to spot a galaxy they named GN-z11, the farthest galaxy away that we've ever seen.

What is God really like? God is love! This little sentence brought St. John more sweetness than the whole world can bring. God is often styled holy, righteous, wise; yet not holiness, righteousness, or wisdom in the theory completely describes God. God is love; His nature, his darling, his reigning attribute, and the attribute that sheds an amiable glory on all his other perfections is love. What is God really like?

What Is God Really Like? - Daily Hope with Rick Warren ...

Who is God, really? The way that God has been represented most of the time, by most Christians, by most churches, it is hardly to be wondered at that many people reject the very thought of him. Or - if they don't outright reject him, they accept his existence in such a way as to keep him at a distance.

This is what Heaven is really like, according to people who've been there. ... Inside is God himself, sitting on a throne and surrounded by music and scents so beautiful that it all surpasses the human ability to describe. Just outside the heavenly city is a second settlement for those who aren't quite ready to enter the presence of God. This ...
