Who Rescued Who is a volunteer-powered 501(c)(3) non-profit. We carefully guard every resource we have to maximize the number of animals we can save. Although our adoption fees do not cover all the costs associated with our rescues, we never want to turn away a dog based on their medical needs, or be forced to end treatment due to cost alone.

Tenant observed that evacuating troops directly from the beach would be an arduous and potentially costly process. To remedy this, he directed the soldiers to board rescue ships from a 1,400-yard (1.3-km)-long breakwater to the east. From May 26 to June 4, over 338,000 British and French troops were safely evacuated from Dunkirk.
