After reading Warcraft Chronicle 1 and 2 I wanted more of that juicy Warcraft lore! I started reading Knaak's War of the Ancients but I soon found out that Dawn of the Aspects is chronologically set before War of the Ancients. I chose to read Dawn of the Aspects series first. However, I quickly grew confused because I didn't know who Kalec was.

Dawn of the Aspects covers the beginnings of some of my favourite Warcraft characters - the Dragon Aspects. Their lore has always fascinated me, and while this book is a very fun and thrilling ride, there's so many small issues and inconsistencies that become very, very distracting whilst reading it.
