The break-even point - when your car's value matches the remaining debt - can be an excellent time to change because it won't cost you anything. This only tends to happen in the final year of a PCP agreement, as seen in the diagram below. In some cases your car may become worth more than the remaining debt.

Your Money or Your Life – and everything you find here – is rooted in transforming your relationship with money, not just changing your money habits. The goal is to find and have "enough" (and then some) rather than always seeking "more". This work requires rigor, honesty and a radical willingness to change.
