The idea of multiple timelines was canonized in a book called Hyrule Historia, and it has been expanded on in other Zelda books since. The timeline starts with the events of Skyward Sword, which is followed by The Minish Cap and Four Swords. The timeline splits at the end of Ocarina of Time, creating three different timelines for the series.

Hyrule Warriors: Age of Calamity Has Split The Zelda ...
The name Hyrule Historia is not intended to imply that the book is mostly about the development of past games, or the history of the series as it has evolved over the years, although it does provide some of that; the name refers to the chronological history of Hyrule that is shown in the book, with all of the events talked about and shown in Skyward Sword being at the beginning of that timeline.
